Re: Claim #70337 General Motors Corporation

Dear Justice Gerber:

Firstly many thanks for your ruling with regard to Late Filing on above claim. As of this date Justice Gerber my stock account has not been satisfied for the full $10,000.

I thought perhaps in someway you could shed some light on this matter. I am now a 73 year old working senior and any help would be greatly appreciated.

Again my sincere thanks for your help and kindness in this matter.

Sincerely,

Deanna M. Lesser

Subject: Late filing -Excusable Neglect - Missed Communication

Dear Sir:

Please be advised that I made my best effort to contact the proper person with regard to filing the above claim. I had extreme difficulty in finding the proper person (please see letter attached). I believe I used good faith and am now asking for justice for substantial justice. I left countless messages with:

1. GM Customer Line Service
2. Josha Holder, Executive New General Motors
3. Edward Whitacre-CEO of New GM, who instructed me to file a claim immediately.
4. Lisa- Customer, PR
5. Edward Wu-Harvey R. Weil, Gotshal & Manages LLP
6. Mr. Gruffith-Weil, Gotshal & Manages LLP
7. Ms. Whitman and Stephanie Greer Weil, Gotshal & Manages LLP
8. Alex Partners/Candice Wagner-Dallas, Texas

Your Honor I feel I am a innocent victim. I am almost 71 years of age still working full time that sustained terrible injury to my right eye due to the fact that my air bag never expanded.

Finally I was told I should be dealing with the Old General Motors not the New General Motors. In closing your Honor I did make a good faith effort to contact the right person and feel this explanation should be accepted for late filing. I was able to return to work after almost 3 months sustaining great trauma (right orbital blow fracture). Automobile accident was 3/09/09, my 2006 Chevrolet Cobalt Air Bag failed to open causing me to strike my face on the steering wheel.

Lastly all the above statements can be substantiated.

Thank you for all consideration.

Very truly yours,

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DEANNA M LESSER
1 KIMBALL COURT
APT 410
WOBURN MA 01801

Dear DEANNA M LESSER,

Our records indicate that you have provided a properly completed Form W-9 or Form W-8 and have submitted to us the name and contact information of a broker, bank or other financial institution with which you hold a securities account for use in connection with distributions from the Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the "Trust") to holders of Allowed Class 3 General Unsecured Claims pursuant to the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Motors Liquidation Company et al. (f/k/a General Motors Corporation) (the "Plan").¹

As such, Wilmington Trust Company, as trust administrator and trustee for the Trust (in such capacity, the "Trust Administrator"), is prepared to deliver to the broker, bank or other financial institution you have identified the distribution to which you are currently entitled pursuant to the Plan. The agreement governing the Trust (as amended, the "Trust Agreement") provides for quarterly distributions. The next distribution is anticipated to be made in late April or early May 2012 (the "Forthcoming Distribution").

It is currently anticipated that, in connection with the Forthcoming Distribution, you will receive (i) shares of common stock of General Motors Company (ii) warrants to purchase common stock of General Motors Company, and (iii) units² in the Trust (representing contingent beneficial

¹ On March 29, 2011, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York entered an order confirming the Plan. The effective date of the Plan was March 31, 2011.

² The Trust Agreement provides for the distribution of "units" in either transferable or non-transferable form. Such units are only permitted to be issued in transferable form if (i) the Trust receives a favorable ruling from the Division of Corporation Finance of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), in a form acceptable to the Trust Administrator in its sole discretion, which provides that, among other matters, the Division of Corporation Finance of the SEC would not recommend enforcement action if such units are not registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and (ii) in addition to such favorable ruling from the Division of Corporation Finance of the SEC, the Divisions of Investment Management and Trading and Markets of the SEC formally or informally communicate that they have no objection to the issuance of the units and the establishment of the Trust (such requirements collectively the "No Action Relief"). To date, the Trust has not received the No Action Relief, and therefore has been restricted to issuing only non-transferable units. As a result, you may receive non-transferable units in connection with this distribution, which such units would be issued on the books and records of the Trust only and would not be transferable by you in any respect. If and to the extent that the No Action Relief is received by the Trust prior to the interests in the Trust), each as set forth in the attached schedule. In addition, in accordance with the Trust Agreement, you may also receive a cash payment in lieu of certain fractional shares of common stock and warrants.³ Your continued ownership of units in the Trust may entitle you to additional future distributions delivered to the broker, bank or other financial institution you have identified, unless you designate a different broker, bank or financial institution at or prior to such time. Please note, however, that the attached schedule provides no information regarding any future distributions to you from the Trust.

Please review and verify the accuracy of the attached schedule. If you believe that the attached schedule contains any errors or inaccuracies, please contact the Trust Administrator at (866) 521-0079 before you take the steps outlined below.

In order to receive any General Motors Company common stock and warrants (and, if issued in transferable form, units) in this distribution, you must complete the following steps. You will not receive any distribution of stock or warrants (or, if issued in transferable form, units) from the Trust unless and until you complete Steps 1 and 2 below.

- Step 1. Complete Request Form. Except as provided herein, the broker, bank or other financial institution you previously identified must complete the attached Form A, and deliver the completed form, containing an original signature and medallion guarantee, to the Trust Administrator via U.S. Mail or overnight courier service to the following address:

Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust
c/o Wilmington Trust Company, as Trust Administrator
Rodney Square North
1100 Market Street
Wilmington, DE 19890-1615
Attn: Corporate Capital Markets

If you would like to designate a different broker, bank or other financial institution, please direct such alternative broker, bank or other financial institution to complete Form A. Unless and until you direct otherwise, the Trust Administrator will use the account information you provide on the completed Form A to make all future

Forthcoming Distribution, you may receive units that are transferable in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement and the No Action Relief. Neither the Plan nor the Trust Agreement contains an affirmative obligation to issue transferable units.

- ³ Such cash payment, if any, will be mailed to you directly by check at the address indicated in the records of the Trust Administrator as soon as practicable following the distribution. The exact amount of any such payment will depend on the prices at which such stock and warrants are able to be sold in the market by the Trust Administrator. The Trust Agreement prohibits the Trust Administrator from making cash distributions of less than $25 in certain situations, including to holders of non-transferable units if such distributions are made on account of such units.

distributions, if any, to you in accordance with the Plan (including, in the event that transferable units are issued by the Trust, any cash distributions).

In order for your Form A to be accepted by the Trust Administrator, the form must be placed on the letterhead of your broker, bank or other financial institution, fully completed, signed by an authorized signatory of your broker, bank or other financial institution, and medallion guaranteed.

- o Step 2. Broker Cooperation. Upon receipt of your Form A by the Trust Administrator, the Trust Administrator will contact your broker, bank or other financial institution using the contact information you provided. The Trust Administrator will identify a date on which the General Motors Company common stock and warrants (and, if issued in transferable form, units) to which you are entitled will be available for delivery to your securities account. On the specified date, your broker, bank or financial institution may be required to take additional mechanical steps identified by the Trust Administrator to receive such stock, warrants and units (if applicable). If your broker, bank or other financial institution fails to complete the steps identified by the Trust Administrator on the date specified, such stock, warrants and units (if applicable) will not be delivered to your securities account. In such event, the Trust Administrator will attempt to work with your broker, bank or other financial institution to deliver such stock, warrants and units (if applicable) on an alternative date.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Please ensure your Claimant Identification Number (referenced on the attached schedule) is included on ALL of your communications with the Trust Administrator. The Trust Administrator will reject any paperwork that does not contain the Claimant Identification Number, and such rejection may have an impact on the timely receipt of your distribution.

Receipt of the General Motors Company common stock, warrants and units and any cash distribution may have tax consequences for you, and you are encouraged to consult with your tax advisor.

Please be advised that if you do not take the actions required by this letter and any further instructions provided by the Trust Administrator, you could forfeit your interests in the General Motors Company common stock, warrants and units to which you would otherwise be entitled in this distribution.

If you have any questions about your distribution, or for more information, please visit the Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust website at <https://www.mlcgucustrust.com/>. You may also contact the Trust Administrator by calling (866) 521-0079 or in writing at:
